Cécile Pouzadoux
announced as Redevco France's new Portfolio Director

Cécile Pouzadoux, 43, is set to take the helm of Redevco France's Portfolio team, after serving more than two years as the company's Financial Director. She will report directly to Thierry Cahierre, Managing Director of Redevco France and Head of Global Asset Management for the pan-European real estate investment group, Redevco.

A graduate of the ESC Clermont Business School, Pouzadoux went on to achieve France's higher accountancy degree, the Diplôme d'Expertise Comptable (DEC), followed by 15-years as Senior Manager for audit firm Ernst & Young, where she specialised in the real estate sector. This extensive audit experience opened the doors to a varied international career spanning a number of listed and private companies and regulated investment vehicles (OPCIs), covering every angle of the real estate market.

In her new role, Pouzadoux will have an opportunity to demonstrate her management skills in a broader arena, while also tackling a number of operational issues. She will oversee an asset portfolio worth €1,400 million, with responsibility for asset and property management activities, and take the lead on Redevco France projects.

"I am delighted to be entrusting this key post for Redevco France's future development to Cécile. Her extensive audit experience in the real estate market, her entrepreneurial attitude and the skills she developed during her time as the financial director of our French business make her the perfect candidate to take on this new challenge. Moreover, this change in leadership is another milestone towards our ambition to realign Redevco's organisational structure with our objectives for growth and diversity, both in France and in Europe," remarked Thierry Cahierre, Managing Director of Redevco France and Global Head of Asset and Development Management for the Redevco Group.
