Urban regeneration experts since 1999, building on 185 years of entrepreneurship

Shaping the future of urban real estate

Since 1999 we have made it our mission to transform real estate. As experts in real estate regeneration, we are reshaping urban environments across Europe's most dynamic cities to boost economic, environmental and social vitality.

Our specialist investment strategies focus on:

- Retail parks
- Logistics
- Best-in-class retail & mixed-use
- Living & leisure
- Real estate debt
- Special situation real estate opportunities

Breathing new life into every block and building

At Redevco, we believe in the power of real estate to transform not just landscapes but lives. We see every project as an opportunity to enhance the wellbeing of the communities we touch, making urban areas more liveable, breathable, and vibrant. It's not just about regenerating spaces; it is about reinvigorating communities, fostering connections, and creating places where people and nature can thrive together.

Our values performance, passion & trust guide our actions and ensure we stay true to our vision and mission.

OUR VALUES

Trust

We strive to be a trusted partner and build lasting relationships to ensure we seek the best outcome for our clients.

OUR VALUES

Passion

We are driven by passion that unites us to excel, innovate and positively impact people and planet.

Performance

We deliver client-focused results, through a clear investment process and continuous improvements, applying high standards and efficiency in all operations.

Beyond delivering results, we create lasting impact

We are a trusted partner to our investor clients and tenants. We shape, evolve and enhance quality urban real estate, pioneering positive change that enriches communities now, and for future generations.

More than structures,
a foundation for lives
